

Outreach Activity: Scientists and academicians from PU and FPU interacted with the students of Kendriya Vidyalaya, Zirakpur to discuss the impact on the environment and the future advancements in the field of Green chemistry and technologies. Dr. Jaspreet Dhau from FPU, USA shared his research for developing renewable energy storage systems for 24-hour availability of solar energy for electricity generation. Prof. Bhasin (PU) discussed historical and latest innovations in the field of applied Chemistry. Dr. Ganga Ram Chaudhary and Dr. Rajeev Kumar from PU narrated the goals and objectives of INDO-US 21st Century Knowledge Initiative program funded by UGC, New Delhi. New job skills required in the fast-changing technology era were deliberated to the young minds and this program covered a wide range of interesting objectives relating to everyday life, fulfill the society needs and make a green environment.

